FREEZE - ICE-GATHERING AND THE POOR.

The Grip-Only One Death from It-Claimed to Be One Hundred and Five Years Old-Briefs and Other Items of Interest.

BEDFORD CITY, VA., January 30 .-(Special.)-This is by far the coldest weather of the season up to date. A earth was covered to a depth of five inches, and the cold became intense. About 4 o'clock next morning the mercury had fallen to about 3 degrees below zero. Ice is being harvested of about six inches thickness

As a result of the intensely cold weather, and the difficulty in getting work, for "there is little to earn and many to keep," there is great destitution and actual suffering among the poor, and tho resources of the benevolent organizations of the place are totally inadequate to relieve all of the demands. On Friday there was a slight moderation of the temperature, though the cold was still

The Cold Wave-The Grip-Sudden Death.

MONTEREY, VA., January 20 .- (Special.)-The cold wave struck us with no little force on Tuesday evening, the cold continuing to grow more intense until the thermometer registered about as low as we ever have to record it from this section. On Thursday morning the mercury stood 10 degrees below zero, and on Friday morning 15 degrees below. A very low temperature continues through the day, and there being so much sickness in our midst, the people fear exposure and the streets are comparatively deserted and business suspended in a great The ice harvest has been the finest for

The Squadron Conling-The New Fast Train.

OLD POINT COMFORT, VA., January 30.-(Special.)-Rear-Admiral Bunce is coaling up the vessels of his squadron and getting things in readiness for the manoeuvres off Charleston harbor, early in the coming month. The fleet was joined on Sunday last by the cruisers Columbia and Montgomery, but the latter sailed on Thursday afternoon for Key West to relieve the Raleigh, which will come to Norfolk for repairs.

The Hampton Roads Golf Club had made arrangements to open their new club-house and links this afternoon, but owing to the heavy fall of snow Wednight, which still lingers, function has been postponed until next Saturday, February 6th. A handsome club-house has been erected on the grounds and many of the officers of the garrison have joined the club.

THE NEW FAST TRAIN. Colonel Harry W. Fuller, general passenger agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, has been here on a visit, making arrangements for the new, fast train of Pullman-cars between Old Point and New York, which will be put on the route February 8th. The train will leave here at 10 A. M., connecting with the Congressional Limited, on the Pennsylvania road at Washington, at 4 P. M., and reach New York about 9 P. M. This will afford a quick and comfortable route for northern visitors, who are now heading this way for the spring season.

THE FLAG-SHIP WON.

Race Between the New York and the Indiana Crews.

FORT MONROE, VA., January 20 .-Special.)-A very exciting boat-race between the twelve-oared cutters of the flagship New York and battleship Indiana took place in Hampton Roads at 2 o'clock this afternoon, resulting in a ctory for the flagship's crew by about three lengths. The boats were towed down to a buoy below the thimble shoals lightship, a distance of five miles from the flagship, and got away well together. The crew of the Indiana had won in two previous contests, and both sides put forth their best efforts. As the boats neared the flagship, the New York's boat, by a splendid spurt, drew away from its competitor, winning the race and the championship. Considerable money changed hands on the result.
